Creating a bridge of Scholarly and Academic Excellence

The Gulf Research Meeting seeks to provide an academic environment to foster Gulf studies and to promote scholarly and academic exchange among scholars working with the Gulf region. The Gulf Research Meeting aims to identify issues of importance to the Gulf region and provide a basis for academic and empirical research into those fields. Particular emphasis is given to encourage young scholars to engage in the debate and take part in research collaboration.

Workshops include:

- Natural Resources, Accountability and Democracy
- Formal and Informal Mechanisms of Political Participation
- The Role of the Private Sector in Promoting Economic and Political Reform
- The GCC Banking and Financial Sector
- Developing an Agenda for Security Studies in the Gulf
- The Development of the Media in the Gulf region
- Environmental Policies in the Gulf Region
- EU- GCC Relations
- Gulf-China Relations
- Islamic politics in the Gulf

Participants outside the UK will receive a travel allowance. Hotel accommodation will also be available at a discounted rate
